A SUPPLEMENTARY VOLUME TO WIGMORE ON EVIDENCE

Professor John H. Wigmore has prepared a supplement to his unrivaled treatise on Evidence, in which all the recent decisions of the courts and the statutes are cited and treated in such a manner that anyone referring to the new volume can see at a glance everything which has been added to the law.

THE NEW MATTER. The judicial modifications, overruling of existing doctrines and new phases of the subject are presented with painstaking thoroughness. The author has commented on and cited 4,000 cases decided and reported since January 1, 1904 (covering more than 6,000 points or citations), and has also cited nearly nine hundred statutes or code sections.

THE PLAN of the supplemental volume includes the restatement of modified doctrines, and new topics decided only in very recent cases. But the adding of later decisions and statutes to supplement those in the main treatise takes up a large part of the work.

IN ARRANGEMENT the Supplement follows the main treatise.

THE INDEX to supplementary matter has been combined with a new and very full General Index. In this Encyclopædia Index to the entire work, different type has been used for the references to the supplementary matter, so that it can readily be seen whether the Supplement, or main treatise, or both should be referred to.

Every owner of a set of Wigmore on Evidence will appreciate the value of the addition of this new material. The publication of the supplementary matter makes this treatise nearly four years later than any other.

THE AMERICAN AND ENGLISH ANNOTATED CASES

is a new series of important current Reports that has met with the immediate favor of the Bench and Bar of the United States and Canada.

The Cases

Two hundred and fifty cases are reported in full in each volume.

The American cases include the decisions of both the state and federal courts.

The strong English and Canadian courts are represented by those cases which are of value to the American lawyer.

Each case is selected with an eye single to its importance and the strength of the opinion.

The cases are selected solely from the official reports, and the official citation is always given.

The pagination of the official report, is preserved throughout the opinions for purposes of citation.

The Notes

Every case is annotated.

The notes are to fine points, like those you brief in your practice.

They are written by experts, lawyers who have spent years in learning how to find authorities.

They are helpful notes, because they present compactly all the decisions in point, weigh authorities, and give the reason of the law.

The notes are not monographs nor are they mere digests of special subjects.

They are thorough. The notes in a single volume consider and state the law of about sixteen thousand cases.

The average of 16,000 citations of cases in the notes to each volume is an average of 64 to each of the 250 reported cases the volume contains. This means that an experienced law writer has searched for and read that number of cases for the point under discussion in the note he is writing and that it has taken him on an average of over three days' hard work to do it, and all this expert labor, including a fully reported case, you receive for Two Cents.

The Cumulative Index to the notes, which is printed in every volume, enables you to find any note in the series by consulting but one alphabet.

The American and English Annotated Cases is published by subscription, four royal octavo volumes annually. Price Five Dollars per volume, delivered.

Can you afford to delay longer placing in your library this valuable set of selected Reports?
